SEAN MCDOWELL @ Ezekiel Forum

Dr. Sean McDowell is a gifted Communicator with a passion for equipping the church, and in particular young people, to make the case for the Christian faith. He connects with audiences in a tangible way through humor and stories while imparting hard evidence and logical support for viewing all areas of life through a Biblical worldview.

Differences of opinion have always been a part of life. But today, we live in an increasingly argumentative culture. Sean will talk about how to have meaningful discussions on the thorniest issues, addressing:

- How to create connection and emotional awareness that opens the door for a fair exchange of ideas and effective communication.
- How to engage in perspective-taking, as illustrated in Scripture.
- How to speak the truth in love.
- How to structure a conversation with those who hold diverse, and/or seemingly threatening views.
- How to honor the words and perspective of those with whom we disagree.

SEAN MCDOWELL @ Ministry Brunch

Ministry leaders are increasingly dealing with those who are practicing deconstruction—analyzing, evaluating, and reassembling the content of one's faith. This is a growing trend among younger evangelicals.

Dr. Sean McDowell will address area ministry workers at our annual FREE brunch where he will offer practical guidance on how to have a faithful deconstruction—a process of reevaluating one's Christian beliefs and experience in the church while keeping essential Christian beliefs still intact. You will learn why many people drift from the faith and how you can help them find their way back to a shore of Christian commitment.

You will learn how you can guide those who feel there is no place for them within the faith and bring them back to an authentic faith by:

- Establishing Jesus and His teachings as the foundation.
- Utilizing the creeds as boundary markers of what is essential.
- Seeing the entire Bible as a truthful revelation from God.
